Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from North Carolina Journal of Education, 1897, Vol. 1 The Journal of Education asks the continued co-operation of all friends of humanity in hastening this day. The enlistment is for the war. The Woman s Aid Society. - Almost even-social institution is helped, in these days, by some kind of woman s aid society. The Y. M. C. A., the hospital, the parsonage, the rectory, the missionary cause, the church building, all charities of whatever nature have their associations of this kind, and they render very material aid. Why should not every public school have its woman s aid society? The school is not only the training ground for the children; it is also their home for a great part of their early life. What nobler thing can mothers and young ladies undertake than to aid in making the school more efficient and the homes of their children and younger brothers and sisters more comfortable and attractive? The ladies of Lincolnton, N. C., led by Miss Hoke, Mrs. Bynum and others, have organized such a society. They will look after the comfort and beauty of their school house and grounds, will see that there is a small collection of books and papers suitable for children to read, and will do for the school and children many other things which only the loving care of the mother and the skilled hand of woman can accomplish. Let the women of every school district in North Carolina follow the example of Lincolnton. The North Carolina Journal of Education hopes within the next few years to reach every teacher and school officer in the state and a very large number...
