What they call Aurora, or the dawn, goes before me, that mankind may know my approach. 1 peep in at your windows with a golden beam of light. Rise with me, I say; for I never shine that healthy men, women and children may sleep daylight away. I am a mighty traveller, and travel without stopping to please or wait for any one. I shine that they may wake, get up, and read, or go to work. I have a crown of glorious radiance around me on every side. I shine over half of the universe; and give half a year of day, for occupation, and...
