No one but Adele would have leaped unhesitatingly from log to log, to follow Mose into the brake. Were the path through quagmires she must have followed him, for now a hollow, crackling sound could be heard and showers of sparks streamed upward. Slick Mose was running, uttering his half-animal cry of pain. He chose the path so skilfully that not once did their feet sink below the surface. Fleet of foot as the idiot was, Adele kept close to him. They emerged into the open. Parson Collins s house was blazing before them, aflame now from pillar to roof-tree: but not a human creature was in sight. Mose ran to the sycamore to which the preacher had been bound. Blood-stains on...
