Still, here used in its Bhakesperian meaning of always, ever. 3, Discordant echoes, the hopefulness of youth, the self-confidence of manhood, and the prudence of old 020, often seem to be in opposition to one another, though they are really all parts of God s teaching! as to the way In which we ought to live. A perfect life must be the outcome of no one of these three qualities, but the result of their harmonious combination. 4. Sec preceding note. He who would truly obey must seek to do not one part of God s will but the whole. 5. Excelsior, a Latin word signifying higher. The whole meaning of this poem is given in the well-known lines-- Higher, higher,...
